

Infant Mental Health Awareness Week

9th-15th June 2025

PRACTITIONERS

iCAMHS Southern Trust Workshop

'Who is holding the baby'

It takes a village...the importance of the support of family, friends and professionals to parents whilst they care for baby

Date: Wednesday 11th June 10am-11.30am via Teams.

Available to: Family Support Practitioners in the Southern Trust Area

To apply: <https://forms.office.com/e/74js7Cd6DY>

Closing date: Wednesday 4th June @ 5pm

#IMHAW2025

Content highlighting the work of some of our key services in the Southern Trust will be across our Social Media channels and platforms throughout the week.

Useful Links

BBC Tiny Happy People

Provides information on the science behind your child's development, parenting topics, activities for children and young people

Parenting Programme Support Page

Parent Support – Children and Young People's Strategic Partnership \(CYPSP\) \(hscni.net\)

Information on the range of evidence based parenting programmes available from Sept-June for parents/carers of children and young people (pre birth-18 years) resident in the Southern Trust Area.

Solihull In Our Place

Free online courses for parents, carers, grandparents and teens for anyone resident in Northern Ireland.

Online courses for emotional health and wellbeing