1. Introduction

Welcome to our new Disability Action Plan. Our Plan sets out actions we in health and social care will take forward collaboratively over the next five years in partnership with disabled people. It creates actions that will improve our services, promote positive attitudes to people with a disability and encourage opportunities for disabled people to participate fully in public life. It also shows our commitment to mainstreaming disability issues and placing disability issues at the core of what we do.

The Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) defines disability as:

“a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on a person’s ability to carry out normal day to day activities”.

It is important to note that this definition covers a wide range of conditions, a number of which are not always thought of as a disability, such as people with diabetes, epilepsy, severe disfigurement, dyslexia, cancer, etc. Many disabilities are hidden and include, for example, blood borne conditions such as Hepatitis, HIV, etc.

Much has been achieved during the lifecycle of our previous Disability Action Plan. For more details of what we have done so far, please refer to our respective Annual Progress Reports which are available online and in alternative formats on request.

The actions and priorities in this Plan for 2018 – 2023 were influenced by what disabled people told us, research on inequalities relating to disabled people and other strategic drivers such as the Department of Health’s “Health and Wellbeing 2026 : Delivering Together” strategy.

Our Plan is a living document. It is designed to be flexible and responsive to changing circumstances over the five year period. It will be reviewed on an on-going basis, with annual reports submitted to the Equality Commission for Northern Ireland (ECNI). The reports will provide an annual update on each action and will be available on our websites.

The principles of Fairness, Respect, Dignity, Equality and Autonomy will inform the implementation of our Plan which can be read alongside our Equality Action Plan for 2018 - 2023. We wish to thank everyone who has helped us produce our Plan. We value the experiences and expertise people shared with us and remain committed to working in partnership to deliver the actions.

2. Why we have produced a Disability Action Plan

Under Section 49 of the Disability Discrimination (NI) Order 2006, referred to as the “disability duties”, we are required when carrying out our functions to:

- promote positive attitudes towards disabled people
- encourage participation by disabled people in public life.

The law requires Trusts to submit a Disability Action Plan (DAP) to the ECNI showing how we intend to fulfil these “disability duties”.

We also have a duty to promote and protect human rights both as service providers and employers. We are committed to meeting our duties under both the Human Rights Act 1998 plus the nine other international human rights treaties including the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Disabled People.

Whilst we have these legal responsibilities, we believe that promoting positive attitudes and encouraging participation in public life is part of our core business and that we will lead by example in addressing inequalities and barriers that disabled people experience ultimately to improve health outcomes. Our Plan will help meet our goals of reducing health and social inequalities and improve health and well-being.

3. Working in Partnership

Health and Social Care Trusts and the Northern Ireland Ambulance Service Trust have worked in partnership with disabled people and representative organisations to develop this Plan. Co-design has been at the centre of how our Plan has been produced. It was designed for and with people who are disabled including staff, service users, carers and representative groups from the community and statutory sectors. At the start of writing this Plan we looked at what we had done so far to make a difference for people who are disabled. Next we read up on what other organisations said is good practice and then did our own research on the inequalities that still persist. All this helped us think about what else we could do to make a difference.

We then had a workshop in January 2017 and listened to many people with disabilities, carers and representatives from disability organisations. We asked people at the workshop:

- What has worked well and what needs improved?
- What actions could bring about the improvement?
- Who ought to be involved?

We were told about issues concerning access to information, accessing appointments, other people's attitudes, how people are supported in work and how they find getting a job. Our Plan has been built around these ideas.

For more details on this pre-engagement event, please go to <https://view.pagetiger.com/Outcome-Report>

The Health and Social Care Trusts and the Northern Ireland Ambulance Service Trust formally consulted collaboratively on our Plans from 7 August to 7 November 2017. A Consultation Outcome Report details the consultation process and the feedback received and can be found on Trust websites or by contacting your local Equality Unit, see page 17 for contact details.

All the feedback we have received through engagement and consultation has shaped this Disability Action Plan. We would like to thank everyone who took the time to help us with this valuable work. We are committed to supporting the sustained engagement of groups representing people with a disability and individuals in taking forward this Plan. The Trusts will ensure that people with disabilities and disability advocacy groups are involved when implementing, monitoring and reviewing the Plan or deciding any further actions.

4. What is in our Disability Action Plan for 2018 - 2023

The following tables outline our actions for the next five years. This Plan is designed to be flexible and responsive to changing circumstances and needs. Our Plan will be reviewed on an on-going basis and when the Equality Commission publishes their statement on key inequalities in health. We will report annually via our Section 75 Annual Progress Report to the ECNI which is submitted at the end of August each year and available on all of our websites or by contacting the Equality Units.

Section 1 – Promoting positive actions and increased participation through training, awareness and resources
