

FOI 2118

5th February 2024FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 – INFORMATION REQUEST

Please provide me with a breakdown of how many people are diagnosed as having Parkinson's Disease within your Health Trust as of the date of this request.

Response:

This information is not centrally collated and we consider that the cost of retrieving the information would be above the 'appropriate limit' as defined by the FOI Act under Section 12. Section 12 makes provision for public authorities to refuse requests for information where the cost of dealing with them would exceed the appropriate limit. The limit has been specified as £450 for public authorities such as the Southern Trust. This represents the cost of one or more person spending 18 hours or more in determining whether we hold the information locating retrieving and extracting the information.

Can you also tell me how many people are currently on a waiting list to see a neurologist for a diagnosis because of Parkinson's related symptoms.

Response:

This information is not centrally collated and we consider that the cost of retrieving the information would be above the 'appropriate limit' as defined by the FOI Act under Section 12. Section 12 makes provision for public authorities to refuse requests for information where the cost of dealing with them would exceed the appropriate limit. The limit has been specified as £450 for public authorities such as the Southern Trust. This represents the cost of one or more person spending 18 hours or more in determining whether we hold the information locating retrieving and extracting the information.

Please also provide me with the current top 10 longest waiting times of people waiting for a Parkinson's diagnosis appointment within your trust catchment area.

Response:

This information is not centrally collated and we consider that the cost of retrieving the information would be above the 'appropriate limit' as defined by the FOI Act under Section 12. Section 12 makes provision for public authorities to refuse requests for information where the cost of dealing with them would exceed the appropriate limit. The limit has been specified as £450 for public authorities such as the Southern Trust. This represents the cost of one or more person spending 18 hours or more in determining whether we hold the information locating retrieving and extracting the information.

Email: Foi.Team@Southerntrust.hscni.net